

I am asking that the New Jersey DO NOT CALL list remain as it is. I don't feel I should be annoyed with telemarketers whose products I will not buy over the phone. It is absolutely horrendous that I have to listen to more than a dozen calls a day with services or products that are of no interest to me. Perhaps, you need to make your laws a little more stringent.